

STUDENTS SATISFACTION SURVEY ANALYSIS YEAR 2022-2023

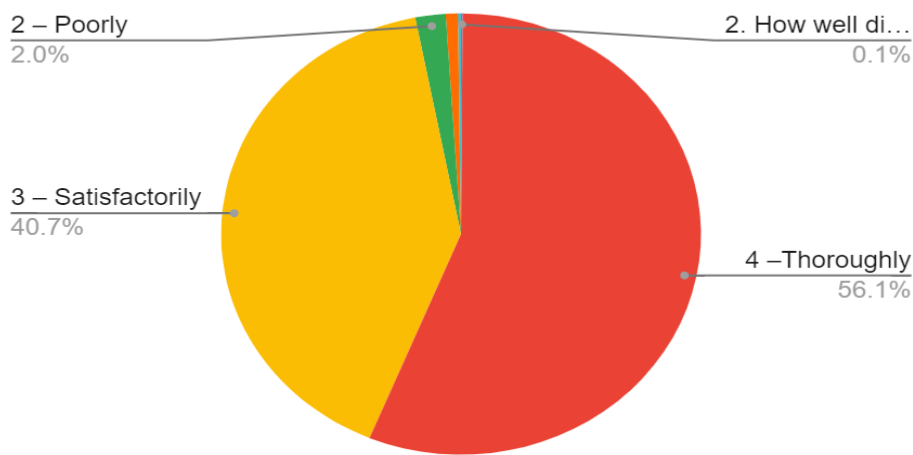

Feedback from students was taken, so that the students could share their opinions about the learning experiences in the institution. And also, the institution could identify their strengths and improvement areas. Feedback regarding pedagogical approach in the implementation of syllabus, fairness in assessment, student's engagement in the review process. The data was received from 980 students.

Given below is the percentage-wise distribution of the student's responses:

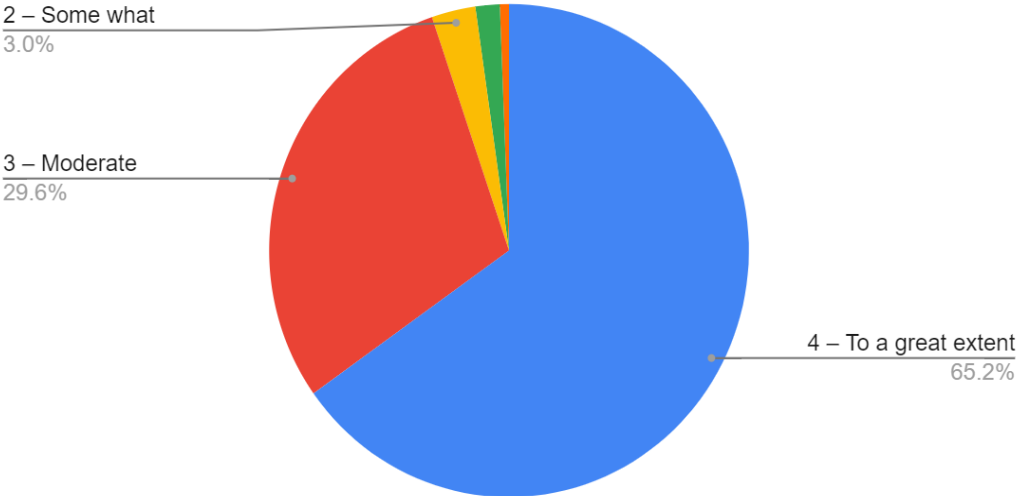

How much of the syllabus was covered in the class?

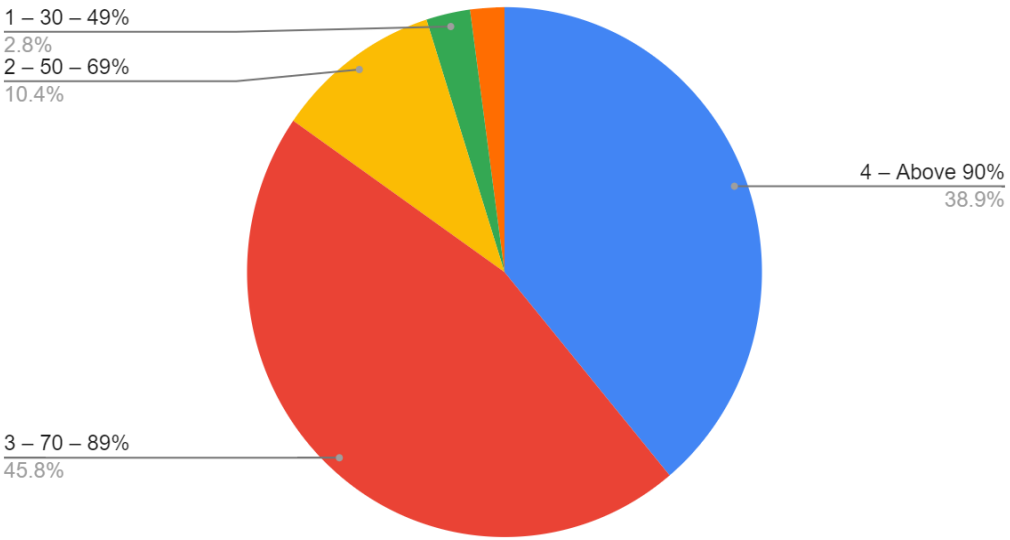

How well did the teachers prepare for the classes?

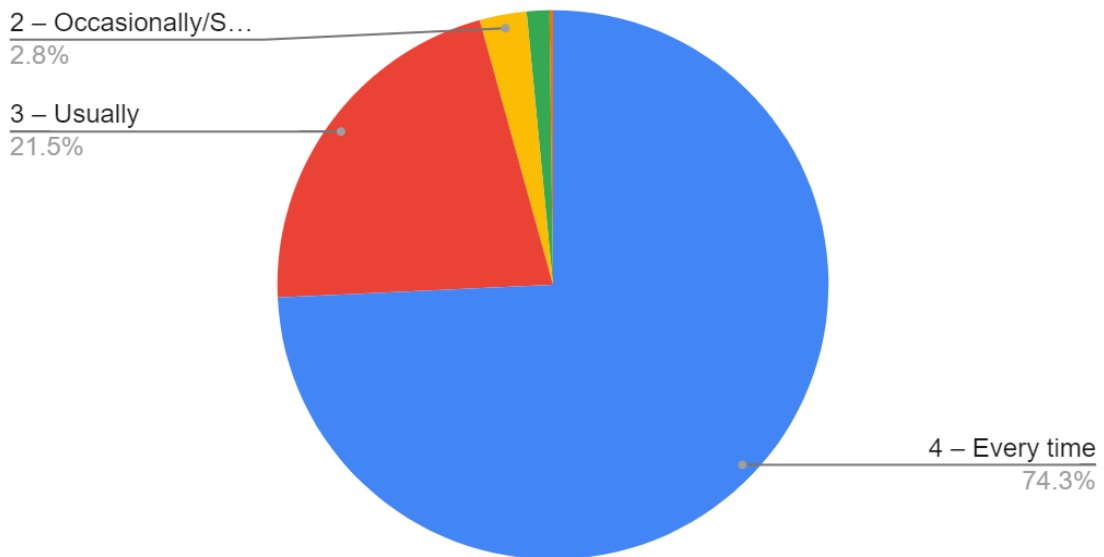

The institute/ teachers use student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies for enhancing learning experiences.

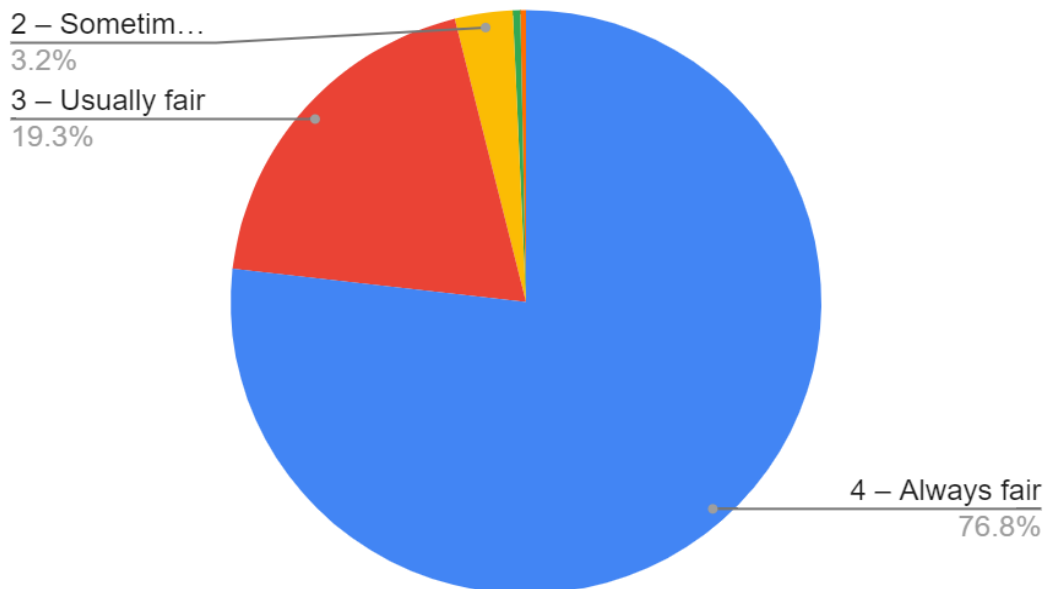

What percentage of teachers use ICT tools such as LCD projector, Multimedia, etc. while teaching.

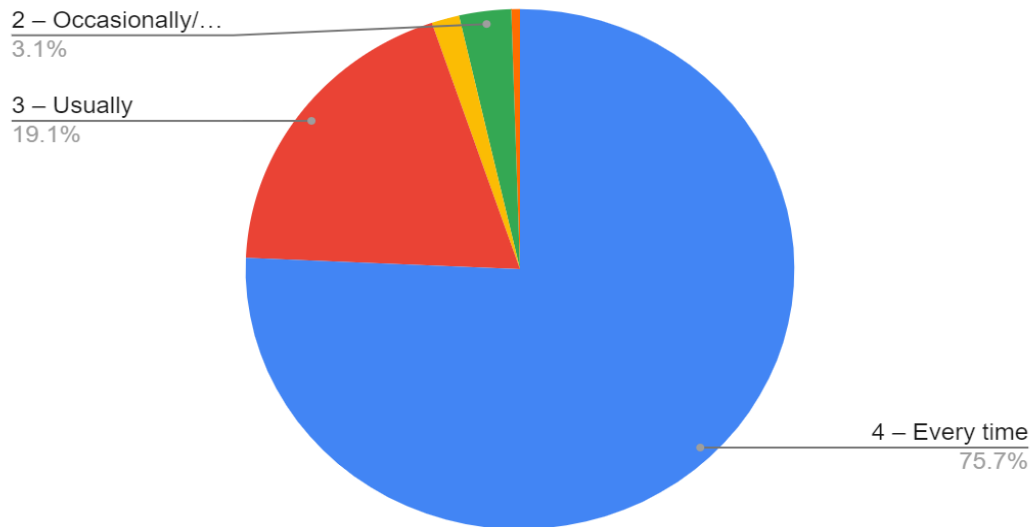

Teachers inform you about your expected competencies, course outcomes and programme outcomes.

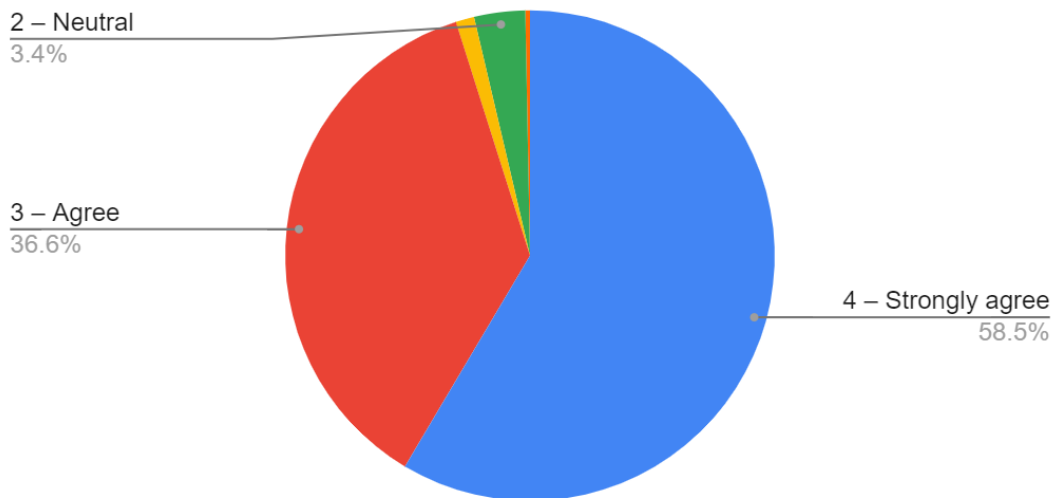

Fairness of the internal evaluation process by the teachers.

Was your performance in assignments discussed with you?

The institution makes effort to engage students in the monitoring, review and continuous quality improvement of the teaching learning process.

With regard to the overall teacher's approach to teaching, 55% students opined that teachers had excellent approach to teaching. Students have given the following suggestions, like, better use of visual medium to make the content more engaging, emphases on group activity should be given and more practical oriented assignments could be used and more interactive sessions to cater to the needs of the students with different abilities should be organized.